

Celebrating Black Heritage

Throughout history, Black people have made 'world-changing' contributions in the areas of science, business, and culture. These contributions result from the exhibition, as a people, of the qualities of:

- Commitment to Excellence
- Resourcefulness
- Creativity
- Determination

Join us for a Cultural Celebration

Friday, Feb 9th; 6:30pm-8pm
424 E. 19th Street, Brooklyn

Sponsored by Flatbush-Tompkins Congregational Church
(718) 282-5353

Celebrate the heritage and achievements of the black community through music, dance, and art.

Hear Dr. Danielle Brown speak about the close relationship between music and dance across black cultures.

Join in as she leads the audience in learning to dance Cuban rueda de casino and talks about the Central Brooklyn Casineros youth program.

Learning, music, and good vibes!
Don't miss it!
